The Suburban Male Quartette.

The Suburban Male Quartette and Prof. Ernest Fitch, reader, delighted their audience at the M. E. Church Saturday night. They deserved a crowded house, but another show in town at the same time cut the attendance down. Jasper has had a number of lyceum quartettes that were not nearly so good. We believe another appearance would draw a big house.

Rev. J. M. Burdge, pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Golden City, was among the number from abroad attending the Presbytery here this week.

"How Jim Made Good."

The above caption is the title of a little play to be put on by the high school in lieu of the annual class play. The date is Saturday night, May 2. Those who have read the play and seen the rehearsals say its about the funniest little comedy ever imagined. Watch for all the particulars next week.

W. C. Thomas, F. I. Schooler, F. M. Conrad and L. M. Harriman are receiving Masonic degrees at the Spring Convocation of the Joplin Consistory this week.

Presbytery Meets Here

The Presbytery of Carthage met Tuesday morning at the Jasper Presbyterian Church for a two-days' session. There were present 25 ministers of the district, 2 visiting ministers and 24 elders.

Among the ministers present who are prominent in this section and more or less known to Jasper people were, Rev. W. M. Cleveland, moderator, and Rev. J. D. McCaughtry, stated clerk of the sessions, both from Carthage; Rev. Mr. Curtis, A. K. Gurley, Mr. McCracken, of Sarcoux; Dr. Harbourn of Cartersville.

Most of the business transacted during the day meetings was routine and consisted of committee reports from all branches of the church work in the district.

The sermons by Rev. W. M. Cleveland and Rev. W. M. Elliot on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings were very much enjoyed by the audiences that heard them.

Rev. J. A. Reid will preach Sunday at 11 a. m. Let all the members of the church make a special effort to be present, and all others who do not have church at their respective churches, make it a go-to-church Sunday on your part, and take someone with you.

Death of Mrs. L. P. Thomas.

The many Jasper friends of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Thomas were surprised and grieved to hear of the death of Mrs. Thomas, which occurred last Friday morning at Carl Junction, to which place the family had moved about a month ago.

The remains were brought to Jasper and buried in Jasper Cemetery last Saturday.

The funeral was held Saturday morning at 11 o'clock at the Baptist Church, and was conducted by Rev. J. T. Osborn.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas lived in Jasper many years and were both well known and much loved members of the Jasper Baptist Church. Mrs. Thomas had been sick but a short time with a disease the physicians diagnosed as diabetes. She was about 52 years of age.

Beside her husband deceased left a little daughter aged about 13 years.
